Adding For Lent

*If you pour yourself out for the hungry and satisfy the desire of the afflicted, then shall your light rise in the darkness
and your gloom as the noonday.
Isaiah 58:10*

Giving Up?

When it is Easter morning, April 20, 2014, what do you want to be like? Do you want to know more things, weigh less, be more rested? All of those are good things. They come from giving up other things. Would you consider a different approach for lent this year? What would you do, add on, give up, or change if your goal was to know and love more of Jesus than you ever have before come this Easter? You might find that you would be adding something to your life.

Adding On!

Are there people you can serve in your circles? Are you able to spend time with them, get to know them, and see Jesus in them? Would you know more of Jesus if you did that? If so, you might be adding something to your life this Lent.

BTW

My recommended lenten discipline resource is 40 Days of Yes from the Church Missionary Society. You can get it on line at cms-uk.org
